Effe Davis to J. E. Roper, land near Cayce, $400.

Fannie B. Shaw to Scott A. Barbee, town lot in Hickman.

Beautiful Women

Phelps (Chicago) found that all girls of health and a good complexion contained women beautiful. They used them at this time after each wash. It will purify complexion and help to keep skin clear and healthy. Write, May 10, 1907.

We have used Phelps' skin beauty and skin cream for many years. It is the best skin cream we ever used for complexion. Write to Phelps, Inc., 100 N. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

The fourth trial of Caleb Powers, on the charge of conspiring to kill Gov. Wm. Goebel, was held at Georgetown, Monday, with Judge Robbins, of Maryland, presiding. The first effort of Powers' counsel was to disqualify Judge Robbins.

Notice.

The undersigned department of the Farmers Hardware Co. will continue to be under the management of H. C. Barrett, a licensed embalmer, who will answer all calls promptly. Night phone 164—Farmers Hardware Co., Incorporated.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. Al Thomas and family wish to express their thanks to their friends for the many acts of kindness shown them and their loved one during her illness and death.

Two detectives spoiled the plans of pretty Maile Whitwell, Fulton young lady, when she arrived in Memphis, Wednesday, to meet her lover, Geo. McNeely. She believed the train only after many difficulties and falling into the hands of the officers was not a great surprise. "This will never make any difference," she said, "tomorrow is just as good as today and nothing can keep us apart." Mr. Whitwell, Maile Whitwell doesn't agree with her romantically inclined daughter.

Miss Elizabeth Clark, of Troy, Tenn., has been visiting Mrs. B. O. Oman for several days.

Miss and Ruth Henderson, of East Hickman, have the measles.

Miss Snook Rousey, of Route Four, is better after several weeks of illness.

Harvey Stowers, of Cottage Grove, Tenn., visited E. H. Bowlin and family last week.

Our Clerk, of Martin is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cook, this week.

John N. Venter will arrive today to spend a few days with his father, Mr. F. H. Venter.

Our Stover, East has been invited to attend the Big W. C. W. business next Wednesday.

Miss Mable Smith has returned from a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. A. Smith.

The Christian Academy will meet Sunday evening at the Court House. Miss Leta Smith will have charge of the service.

Leave your laundry with W. E. Carpenter, at the Farmers Hardware store, for the Union City Steam Laundry. W. E. Carpenter, Agt.

Mr. and Mrs. Holman and child and Charlie Bowlin and wife of Cottage Grove, Tenn., are visiting the family of E. H. Bowlin, this week.

Compare the Courier this week with any other paper you get. We have no price mark—none that any other paper in Western Kentucky. See if we are not right.

Our friend, John W. Davis, writes our paper championed in Washington, D. C. He is holding down a civil service position and writes us he is doing well.

Let W. E. Carpenter send your laundry to the Union City Steam Laundry, and you will be a permanent customer. Agency at Farmers Hardware Co.

The colored population will hold their annual emancipation celebration in Hickman next Thursday. They may be expected to paint the town a beautiful color.

W. Whipple, foreman of the W. T. Young bridge Co., who has been retaining the Bayview Chief bridge has gone to Tupelo, Miss., where he has some bridges to build.

The Sunday afternoon preaching services at Graves school house are continued with much interest. The regular service will be held next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. F. S. Moore entertained a number of guests at lunch Tuesday afternoon. Price awarded to Mrs. Lee Williams, consolation to Mrs. Pearl Roberts. The afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

John W. A. Taylor informs us that the first time the Courier reaches its readers, it is by the hands of the readers, it is by the hands of the readers, it is by the hands of the readers.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will have an auction sale at the home of Miss Alice Dwyer, Tuesday evening, Aug. 13. Many and varied useful articles will be sold. The services of two professional auctioneers have been engaged. Every body cordially invited to attend—and your pointers have a special invitation.

Mr. E. B. Prather, Sr., took charge of Farmers Hardware Co. on the first day of this month. The change was made by reason of H. C. Barrett accepting a position with the General Box Co. Mr. Prather is a splendid business man, and we predict the business will continue to grow in volume and popularity under the new management. Mr. Barrett, as heretofore, will have charge of the undertaking department.

Miss Lizzie Tenney, of Dyersburg, Tenn., arrived Wednesday night to be the guest of Miss Betie DeBaw and other Hickman friends for several days.

Early Morning Fire.

At about 5 o'clock Monday morning a fire broke out in the rear of the Hotel. The rest of a gasoline stove exploded. Before assistance could be reached the building was a smoking mass of smoke and flames. The building is the old Courier office building, between a barber shop and the Courier's laundry, on the south side of Clinton street, and it looked very much as though the entire block would be destroyed. When the alarm was turned in our local fire department was soon on the scene and a hard work succeeded in getting the fire under control.

The building was the property of Mrs. Geo. Warren. The damage sustained is variously estimated at from $500 to $1,000. Insurance is pending $1,000.

The life estate, owned by Robert McDaniel, was totally destroyed. He carried $500 insurance, but this amount will not cover the loss.

Helen Kirk, who had the dwelling house above the Cafe, lost her insurance goods in the fire, and her property was damaged by fire and water.

Kirk had $200 insurance on her goods.

McDaniel informs a Courier reporter that he will go back in business just as soon as possible.

Barnell Wright, employed in the Cafe and who was lighting the stove when it exploded, escaped without a scratch.

Dude. Heavily Dead.

Dude Heatherly, aged 19 years, who resided with his parents six miles west of Hickman, died Saturday of malarial fever, after a brief illness. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Heatherly, who survive him.

The funeral was taken charge of by the W. O. W. at the Farmers Hardware undertaking department, and burial at the City Cemetery with the regular lodge ceremonies. (Heatherly had been a member of this order only a few weeks, and carried $5,000 insurance.)

The Courier extends sympathy to the bereaved relatives.
